New Beginnings: A Fresh Career Path Awaits the New Entrepreneur at the National Franchise & Business Opportunities Show

MARKHAM, ONTARIO (July 30, 2013) - There's a new brand of entrepreneur in the marketplace. Individuals who may have lost their jobs, retired, or have decided to embark on a new career path have found a new direction: thanks to the National Franchise & Business Opportunities Show, held on September 28 & 29 at the Millenium Place, in Edmonton.

Canadian entrepreneurs are invited to meet with representatives from proven and profitable businesses, across Canada and the US, who are on the look-out for local owners. And with a broad spectrum of industries ranging from senior care, retail, restaurants, education, and cleaning services - all while conveniently located all under one roof - it's easy to see why so many individuals choose the National Franchise & Business Opportunities Show as the first step to launching their new career paths.

"We are pleased to produce an event that brings together North America's fastest growing franchises and business opportunities with potential business owners who are looking for their next path to success," says Fred Cox, President of National Event Management. "Face-to-face meetings are the best way to research a business ownership opportunity as well as compare and contrast many great new concepts looking to expand in Alberta."

While the event provides a platform for discovering your ideal business fit, it also provides valuable educational resources, including free seminars hosted by industry experts, lawyers, and consultants to help educate and ensure that future business owners have all the information, tools, and resources they need in order to achieve success.
